It was pleasure to have a 10 day learning with Vin sir! Though been in a Online mode still it was such an amazing learning for an undergraduate Student. Getting an hands on to the scrum and agile and the experience of corporate world project of being a business analyst and working on the Jira application. Did not think of having a theoretical subject of Analytics strategy and implementation moulded into a practical working!

Thankyou sir for sharing ur experience and learning and making us a better informative sessions!

Vineet S is an expert in Financial Markets world, as I student for 'Certified Investment Banking Operations Professional' course he training a whole batch very passionately by knowledge he acquired in his career. He overlooking complete understanding by trainees of each and every topic which he delivered. He gave opportunity to every student to explore presentation skills by giving platform for case studies presentation. He acquired immense knowledge of financial world and encouraging others also to do same. It is just short note on him, As a trainer he gave his 100% and more accessible to everyone. I am thanking him to being part of my starting journey in Investment banking world
